HEZEKIAH KING AND DESCENDANTS.

1 2388

Hezekiah King is supposed to have been born in Weymouth, Mass. about 1690. Nothing has been learned with respect to his parentage, although several plausible suggestions have been made.

That which is most difficult to disprove is that he was the son of Hezekiah and Mary King of Weymouth, grandson of John and Esther (Bayley) King, and grand-son of that John King who was one of the earliest settlers of Weymouth. The family name of Mary, wife of Hezekiah King, cannot be asserted with confidence. By some she is thought to have been born # 24 March, 1660 in support of which it is pointed out, that in the division of the estate of John Shaw of Weymouth, mention is made of his daughter, Mary King. By others she is claimed to have been the daughter of Thomas and Rebecca (Josselyn) Nichols, born at Hingham 3 July, 1653, and it is shown that Hezekiah King of Weymouth deeded 17 March, 1686/7, to Israel Nichols of Hingham (brother to the above Mary Nichols) one half of that lot of land numbered 14 in the second division of Conihasset (Cohasset) lands.

Witnesses: John Pratt, James Stewart and Janna Stewart. Proved for record by the subscribing witnesses 3 July, 1703. It is also pointed out that the name of the last witness suggests Joanna, sister of the above Hezekiah King for whom no husband has been found. It may be she became the wife of James Stewart. It is to be noted that Alexander Stewart of Charleston had administration on the estate of James Nichols of the same place in 1667. Administration on the estate of the above Hezekiah King was granted to his widow Mary in November 1690, his inventory being taken the 10th of that month by James Humphrey and Joseph Dyer. It included cattle, lumber, a quarter interest in a sloop, but no real estate, and was verified by his widow Mary King recorded at Weymouth 18 February 1690/1. The only children of Hezekiah and Mary King recorded at Weymouth were, 1, Mary b. 10 October 1679, and 2, Samuel, b. 20 April, 1686; probably removed to Norton and died in 1730.

The first record that we find of Hezekiah King is that of his marriage with Sarah Read (probably b. at Weymouth 1 March 1694) which took place at Bridgewater, Mass. 14 May 1712. We hear no more of him until 19 July 1717 when Thomas Huntington of Mansfield, Ct. deeded to Hezekiah King "of Weymouth in the Massachusetts province of New England" certain lands lying in Mansfield, the deed being executed at Windsor. It seems probable that shortly thereafter Hezekiah King moved with his wife and two children to Mansfield. Here he continued to reside at least until 1721, numerous deeds on record at Mansfield reciting the fact, but had removed to Bolton (probably North Bolton, now called Vernon) prior to 1727, being described as a resident of Bolton in a deed to him from Peter Duell of that date.

In a letter written by the Reverend Allen S. Kellogg, pastor in the Congregational Church in Vernon, Ct., dated 4 Nov. 1764, he states that "Deacon Hezekiah King was received to the Church in Bolton from the Church in Mansfield, probably in 1725 or 6. The town record gives the dates of birth of eleven children, five of whom were baptized at Bolton. Bolton was not settled until 1718, and a part of these children were probably born at Mansfield." In 1740 Hezekiah King again removed to Amenia, Dutchess County, New York, and died in December of that year. He is said to have been buried in Sharon, Ct., and his to have been the first burial in that place. All efforts to find his grave stone as yet have failed. His will, dated 8 October, 1740, is on record at Hartford, Ct., where it was proved. With it is the inventory dated 19 December, 1740. It mentions wife Sarah, sons Hezekiah, William and John, and daughters Sarah, Esther, Mary Patshebe, Mercy and Alice. His wife Sarah died 17 May, 1750 in her 57th year, as is shown by her grave stone still to be seen in the old burying place a little north of the present village of Amenia, lying opposite the site of the "Old Red Meeting House" of which church she was a member. It is to be noted that her age at death is in harmony with the date above assigned for her birth.

Issue:

1. A Daughter, b. probably at Weymouth 14 May, 1714.

Their gravestones are still standing near that of her mother, and their descendants are still to be found in Amenia.

XII. ALICE (Elsie?) b. at Bolton, Ct. 18 Feb. 1734/5. m. Israel Mead of Amenia, N.Y.

L. CAPT. HEZEKIAH (HEZOKIAH) KING.

Capt. Hezekiah (Hezokiah) King. b. probably at Weymouth, Mass 4 April 1715, m. 20 April 1740 Abigail Adams of Coventry who d. 15 Sept. 1751. He m. second about 1753, Anna Thrall and d. at Vernon 11 Sept. 1777 in his 63rd year. His widow Anna d. 17 July 1798. Both were in Oct. 1762 among the 35 founders of the Congregational Church in Vernon, coming from the Church in Bolton. The will of Hezekiah King of Bolton, dated 31 August 1777, mentions wife Anne and children Hezekiah, Elijah, Samuel, William, Abigail, Sarah, Anne, Eliza and Clarissa. His inventory was taken 3 March 1778. (Hartford Probate Records, Vol. 22, page 327) The foregoing abstract may be defective, and possibly the will makes provision for a son Lemuel.

THE HISTORY OF THE

The history of the world is a long and tedious story, but it is one that is full of interest and variety. It is a story of the human race, of its struggles, its triumphs, and its failures. It is a story of the great empires, of the great wars, and of the great discoveries. It is a story of the human mind, of its power, and of its limitations. It is a story of the human heart, of its joys, and of its sorrows. It is a story of the human spirit, of its strength, and of its weakness. It is a story of the human race, of its past, and of its future.

* Samuel (Hezekiah) King. b. at Mansfield, Ct. 24 May 1719. Of his marriage and the birth of his children no record has been found. He was admitted to membership in the "Red Church", Amenia, N.Y. 30 Feb. 1751. Of him Dr. Newton Peabody of Amenia wrote 26 Jan. 1884 "he was elected at the first precinct meeting in Amenia in 1762 to take inventories of entestate estates, and held the office for many years. In 1775 he was one of the Committee to obtain signatures to the Patriotic Pledge and was evidently one of the wise counsels of the times". A receipt is still extant given to him in 1770 as overseer of the poor, for certain monies paid Thomas Watson for taking care of Mary Zolwell. A receipt now in the possession of Hon. William H. Perry of Center White Creek, N.Y. reads as follows-"Received June 19th 1777 by Lieut. Sam'l King the sum of $15, it being money that was received to pay the soldiers, and delivered to Ensign Gilllett for that purpose. Received per Job Mead". Another receipt in the same hands reads as follows: "Amenia, Dutchess Co. Sept 6, 1777. Received of Samuel King the sum of L2, money of New York, for going express to Fishkill and Fredericksburg, etc: for carrying letters to John Jay and Colonel Luddington, received by me, Samuel Beman."

Samuel King was commissioned Ensign in Dutchess Co. New York, 20 March 1760, his commission being signed by James De Lanoy, Governor. His commission at Lieut. in 1762 was signed by Robert Manton, Captain General and Governor in Chief.

The original commissions are now in the possession of Lieut. Wm. R. King, U.S.A.

In 1764 Samuel and Cyrus Alger conveyed to Samuel King, certain lands in Amenia.

Smith, in his History of Dutchess Co. says that Samuel King was a stern patriot in the Revolution. His wife was Rebeckah, who was also a member of the "Red Church" but the date of her death has not been learned. The will of Samuel King of Amenia dated 12 Oct. 1777 was proved in New York City 22 July 1784 (Recorded Liber 37 of Wills, p. 91, Surrogate Court, New York City). He gave to his son Samuel, the lot of land he now lives on and 10 acres of land out of the home lot, beginning at the south-west corner of my meadow, west of my house, lying 50 rods N. and S; together with one yoke of three year old steers. The rest of his lands he gave to his son Nathaniel.

To daughter Deborah he gave L60 New York money, payable one year after his death. To daughter Rebeckah L 100. both to be paid by Nathaniel, my youngest son. To my dear wife Rebeckah the rest of my movable estate, and the use of 1/3 of my farm, so long as she remains my widow. Wife Rebeckah and Ephraim Paine, executors.

Samuel King died at Amenia 17 May 1784 age 65, as appears from his grave stone, lying near that of his mother.

The executors named in the will renounced their rights, and administration with the will annexed was granted to his brother John King of Mount Washington, who appears to have been his principal creditor. Whether Samuel had an earlier wife than Rebeckah, named in the will, has not been learned, nor do we know her family name. It may be suspected that she was related to Ephraim Paine, named in the will.

35. I. SAMUEL. (called in the will, oldest son) bap. at Amenia 8 Mar. 1753

36. II. NATHANIEL (called in will youngest son)

37. III. DEBORAH

38. IV. REBECCA. bap. at Amenia 26 March 1764.

No further record of this family has been found.

10 JOHN (HEZEKIAH) KING.

John (Hezekiah) King, b. at North Bolton, now Vernon, Ct., 11 Sept. 1730. His father died at Amenia when John was ten years of age and he was but twenty when his mother died in 1750. About two years later he married Elizabeth, said to have been born in 1727, daughter of John Fenner of Saybrook, Ct. In 1753 in a deed from Daniel Minor of Lyne conveying certain Saybrook lands, John Fenner is called a resident of that place. Then, in 1757, his brother, Daniel, porter made a conveyance to him, his residence appears to have been in Oblong, Dutchess Co. (a part of Amenia) and the year following in a purchase of land from Ichabod Averill, he is called a resident of Crumb Elbo, Dutchess County. In 1758 he joined with others in a petition to the Mass. Legislature, for the charter of a township at Taucumock Mountain, afterwards Mount Washington, Mass. This township was surveyed in 1760 but the charter was not granted till 1774. In 1762 he accepted a commission from Robert Monoton, as First Lieutenant in a Company of Militia Foot for the province of Amenia in Dutchess County and in deeds executed in 1764 and 6, he claimed Amenia as his place of residence. The date of his removal to Mount Washington cannot be fixed, although the family record assigns it as the birthplace of his son George. It is certain, however that he was living there in 1773. In 1776 he was appointed Captain of the 14th Company in the First Regiment of Militia in the County of Berkshire, whereof Mark Hopkins is Colonel, and in 1777 was commissioned Justice of the Peace for Berkshire County. The originals of both commissions are in the possession of Wm. R. King. U.S.A.

John King died at Mount Washington 1 May 1808, and his widow Elizabeth died there 29 October of the same year. Col. King has also in his possession an unexecuted will of John King, dated 2 September 1806, in which he gives to his son George the farm in Chenango County, N.Y., then occupied by him.

(Note: The Continental Pay Rolls, on file in the State House in Boston, show that Captain John King, of Berkshire County, Mass., was in service July 1776 to August 1777, and from June to July 1780. Col. Hopkin's Rgt. He marched 60 miles from home to sustain the Fort at West Point when an alarm took place June 27 to July 4, 1780; eight days' rations and mileage, L3, 4s, 6d. This was just before Arnold's detection and flight. WRK)

From Mrs. Amy E. Lansing, Rockville Md. June 1953.

That unperocuted will of John King who died 1 May 1808 at Mt. Washington is recorded in Berkshire County records or rather, mentioned. In 1798 Elijah and Hezekiah were deeded lands by him, in Ergremont, adjoining Mt. Wash., and a farm to his only daughter Elizabeth who married Jeremiah Haxton. In 1806 deeds to lands at Norwich were given to sons John and George. The home place was reserved for his wife, and Fenner the youngest son was to receive that place when his mother died. She died in October of the same year and Fenner disposed of that property that year, removing to Cambridge.

I also found why John King left Amenia to take up the Mt. Washington place. He had signed a note for a friend who promptly mishandled some venture and John King who was more than well to do lost everything he had. I have Fenner's account book which has the entry "paid to J.M. the last payment 1810" This J.M. is evidently his brother in law Job Mead or Job's father. I knew he had lost a fortune through a "friend" and that Fenner helped make good, but these deeds prove the family story.

Also John King evidently went to Amenia from Saybrook, Conn. because his brother Wm. had been there several years. He was the first of the family to go to Cambridge and when Hezekiah came to Cambridge in 1786 took up lands very near his uncle Wm. Descendants of this line still live in Cambridge. This line remained in the Presbyterian church and grew away from the younger King family of John.

Wm. and his sons also served in the Revolution, Solomon rising to the rank of Colonel of the State Militia in 1798.

On census list of 1810 appearing as family hears are George, John and Hiram King, living on lot 67 of the original tract which John King (Capt) deeded to George and John in 1798, the tract Capt. John King of Mt. Wash. Mass. had bought of Job Mead 1798 and on which John and George had been living since 1786. Another deed shows that Capt. John gave each of his five sons a portion, the deed being in tract Barrington, Mass.

Lot of Chenango Co. N.Y. was known as Kings Settlement and on which John's brother George built the Methodist church.

HEZEKIAH (HEZEKIAH, HUZERIAH) KING.

Hezekiah (Hezekiah, Hezekiah) King. b. at Coventry, Ct., 20 Nov. 1740, m. (place and date not known) Ruhana, daughter of ---- and Elizabeth (Fenner) Smith, who was b. at Saybrook, Ct., 11 Sept. 1745. This is family tradition, received from her great grand daughter, Lydia Josephine King, who was in 1881 living with her father, Samuel King, at Athens, Greene Co. N.Y. As her father approved the statement, it is probably reliable: thought the marriage of Fenner King, son of Elizabeth Fenner, with Mary King, the grand daughter of Elizabeth Fenner, appears peculiar. Hezekiah King died in New York (city) 20 Aug. 1807 and his widow died at Cambridge N.Y. 14 March 1837.

41 ELIJAH (ELIJAH JOHN HEZEKIAH) KING.

Elijah (Elijah John Hezekiah) King, b. at Egremont, Mass. 28 Mar. 1786. In 1811 he was licensed to preach and in July of that year was admitted into the itinerant connection of the Methodist Church. In 1813 he was ordained deacon by Bishop Asbury, and after the usual interval was ordained elder by Bishop McKendree. The field of his ministerial labors was the Genesee and Oneida Conferences. He married 2 Sept. 1819 Catherine Olmstead who was born in Bradford Co. Pa. 30 June 1799, her parents coming originally from Conn. In 1825 he abandoned itinerant preaching on account of long continued ill health. He died at Cambridge, N.Y. 14 April 1847 and his widow died at Fort Edward N.Y. 21 Dec. 1870. A Memorial Pamphlet entitled "Our Mother" has been issued by their children.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and change. It begins with the first settlers, who came to the New World in search of a better life. They found a land of opportunity, but also a land of conflict. The struggle for independence was a long and hard one, but in the end, the United States emerged as a free and democratic nation. The story of the United States is a story of the American dream, of the pursuit of happiness, and of the power of the American people.

The United States is a land of many peoples, many languages, and many customs. It is a land of great diversity, and it is this diversity that makes it so strong. The United States is a land of opportunity, and it is this opportunity that has attracted so many people from all over the world.

The United States is a land of great achievement. It is a land that has produced some of the greatest minds in history, and it is this achievement that has made it a world leader. The United States is a land of great freedom, and it is this freedom that has allowed it to grow and prosper. The United States is a land of great hope, and it is this hope that has inspired so many people to strive for a better life.

The United States is a land of great beauty. It is a land of great natural resources, and it is this beauty that has made it a popular destination for tourists from all over the world. The United States is a land of great culture, and it is this culture that has made it a melting pot of different peoples and traditions.

The United States is a land of great progress. It is a land that has led the way in many fields, from science and technology to art and literature. The United States is a land of great innovation, and it is this innovation that has made it a world leader. The United States is a land of great achievement, and it is this achievement that has made it a source of pride for all Americans.

The United States is a land of great hope. It is a land that has the potential to be a better place for everyone. The United States is a land of great opportunity, and it is this opportunity that has made it a source of hope for so many people. The United States is a land of great freedom, and it is this freedom that has allowed it to grow and prosper. The United States is a land of great hope, and it is this hope that has inspired so many people to strive for a better life.

Parentage of Hezekiah King not known. He may have been son of John and Mary King of Weymouth and grandson of John and Esther (Bayley) King.

Hezekiah may have been son of Samuel King and Experience Phillips. Samuel was son of John King. b. 1690 Eng. Came to America 1635 Hezekiah King 1690-1740 seems to be of the family that aided in establishing Weymouth, Mass., one of the first places to be settled by people going out from Plymouth and joining new colonists arriving from England. His wife was Sara.

A Hezekiah King married a Sara Rodd in 1712 at Taunton, Mass. It is undoubtedly the same couple. Hezekiah is next found in Mansfield, Conn. Hezekiah moved to Amenia, Dutchess Co., N.Y. in 1740 and died there, Dec. 1740. Said to be buried in Sharon, Conn., the first burial in that place.

Elizabeth Fenner was daughter of John Fenner of Saybrook, Conn., probably of the illustrious Fenner family in Rhode Island so closely associated with Roger Williams in founding the colony. The Fenner family was an important one in Rhode Island and also held large holdings at Saybrook, Conn., and some of them lived there at one time. Nearly every branch of the King family has had the name of Fenner King. John King and wife Elizabeth went to Western Mass. before the Rev. War. They settled in the most southwestern township of the most western Co. Berkshire. John King must have been a leader in the community. At the outbreak of the Rev. War he led his older sons and others to the front. He commanded the 14th Company, 1st Regiment, Berkshire Co. Militia Mass. Militia. 1776) Capt. under Col. Mark Hopkins. In 1777 was commissioned Justice of Peace for Berkshire Co. The originals of both commissions in the possession of Col. M.H. King. U.S.A. „ 141-105 verification.

"Homer King and his wife Asenath Giles, came to Leslie from Chenango Co. N.Y. in 1836. Mrs. King said the wolves at times came so near the cabin she could see their eye lashes. Mr. King was a well known hunter and received a ten dollar bounty for the first wolf killed in the township. When out at night he was often obliged to carry a burning faggot to scare away the wolves. Indians would come and beg for buttermilk and it was the custom at the King home to set out a stone churn full of this beverage when a band of Indians came.

They lived on Aaron Ingles Farm, Teaspoons Corners, later named North Leslie."
